But the history cited in footnote stated William WEAVER was chosen constable in April. William Weaver was bonded by William W. BYERS, Surlless McCRELESS, William NORMAN, Thomas B. - 16 Dec 1834 Yalobusha Co., MS. The first of four bills of indictment from the Grand Jury was The State vs. Wm. Barns, assault and battery. "Wm Barnes, the defendant, was or had been, the constable in the center beat; and while in the discharge of his official duty had incurred the displeasure of some of his fellows, which could only be settled by one or the other getting whipped. The affair came off at Hendersonville, and a vacant cow lot - with the crowd of spectators perched on the fence around, constituted the arena. It was a very hot day in July or August, and the combat being fierce and long, lasted until both men fell from sheer exhaustion. Barnes was the first to regain his feet, and was considered the victor. So far this is the only conviction; hence the District Attorney's prerequisites on convictions were slim in this county."⁴⁷

- 1840 Lafayette Co., MS. An older and a younger William Barnes in the census. The younger one could be William Jr., wife Rebecca, and son William Jefferson. The older one has a household composition different from what would be expected on the basis of the 1830 Fayette Co., TN, census. This may not be the same William Barnes, Sr. or else it could be our William with a new wife and her children from a previous marriage or perhaps a child of his with family.
- 11 Dec 1841 Yalobusha Co., MS. Mary Barnes & Henry Simons, 162.05 acres. May be Lilburn's widow.⁵⁴ Perhaps she was the widow of William Barnes, Sr., but there is no information to guide this

"In the fall of 1834, Mr. Carton [Carter] CANNON put up a cabin on the ground now occupied by the Shaw Foundry and about the same time, John BARNES, a son-in-law of Mr. CANNON, made an improvement where Mr. A. TABOR now resides." (p. 15.) Shaw Foundry was apparently on the county line with Lafayette County, to the north of Yalobusha.]

"In 1838 or 1839, Mr. G. B. Ragsdale moved up from the vicinity of Coffeeville and purchased the improvements made by Mr. Barnes, where Mr. A. TABOR now resides and established what was known for many years as Ragsdale's Stand ("Comments on the Early History of Water Valley," North Mississippi Herald, Author unknown, 04 Aug 1938, Yalobusha Pioneer, Vol. 17, #4, Winter 1992, p. 16).

In 1844 the first post office was established at Ragsdale's Stand, which was just outside of the county line -- "never in Yalobusha County until a few years ago, when the Legislature attached two tiers of sections of the county from the territory of Lafayette." (p. 17)

Chris B. Morgan, Yalobusha Bound: Yalobusha County in 1850, Yalobusha Valley Press, 1991 (Route 1, Box 67, Oakland, TN 38060), p. 225: Gabriel B. Ragsdale settled first in 1834 in Hendersonville, Yalobusha Co., and moved to "Ragsdale's Stand," about 1835, which is now within the corporate limits of Water Valley.

NOTE: The two sources above differ slightly on location of Ragsdale/John S. Barnes location. YB places it within Water Valley; the other places it in Lafayette Co., MS, a bit north of Water Valley. Both agree on a northeast location.

conclusion. Henry Simons (Jr.) is said to have been born in Hertford Co., NC, in Telfair Co., GA, in the 1830 census, died before 1870 in Saline Co., AR. He married Anne Hobbs 15 Jan 1821 in Marks Creek, Wake Co., NC, daughter of William B. Hobbs and Chloe Lassiter. Henry was the son of Henry Simons, Sr. (born about 1776 in Hertford Co., NC), and Mary Tilman (born about 1785 in Granville Co., NC). I have not tried to document these data.

- 1845 Yalobusha Co., MS. W. B. Barns was in the state/territorial census, line 33, Roll V229_3 with 4 males and 3 females. This may or may not be William Barnes, Sr., or a relative.
- 03 Sep 1845 Arkansas. William Barnes, Jr.'s Son, Jasper Lafayette Barnes, was born. Whereabouts of William Barnes, Sr., unknown.
- 1846 Cass Co., Texas. A William Barnes was on the poll list, possibly William Sr. or Jr. Also on the list were Benjamin Barnes (Bennet?), John M. Barnes (unknown), and John S. Barnes.⁵⁵
- 1847 Hopkins Co., Texas. William Barnes, Jr., and brother Bennet Barnes were on tax list; neither with real estate, according to June Rayfield Welch, now deceased.
- 1847/1848 Arkansas or Texas. Son Bennet C. Barnes married Sarah A. Rodgers.
- 18 Feb 1852 Cass Co., Texas. #130 on list, Alpheus C. Thomason, 320 acres, wit.: John H. Bennett & William Barnes.⁵⁶ Was this William Jr. (who was in Hopkins Co. in 1847 and 1850) or William Sr.?

I have additional information on William Barnes, Jr., & his family, Lilburn Barnes & his family, and Bennet Barnes & his family.

We have learned from Dianne Doyle Stevens, a direct descendant of Mary Elizabeth Barnes Mitchell, daughter of John S. Barnes & Martha Cannon, that William Barnes Sr. also had a daughter, Mary "Polly." who married a Morrison. No more of her is known at this time.
