

Isaiah Burton and Obedience unknown Timeline

- abt 1696 Henrico Co., VA. Isaiah Burton was born to John Burton & Elizabeth Fowler.¹
- 1728 Henrico Co., VA. John Burton (son of Thomas1 of Cobbs) deeded 85 acres on the south side of Falling Creek 'for valuable consideration of 5 shillings current money.'² "Signed with the peculiar mark of John Burton, and witnessed by William Cocke and Samuel Soane. (Henrico Deeds, Wills, 1725-1737 p. 256.)"³
- 1736 Henrico Co., VA. "Henry Cary of the county of Henrico deeded to Isaiah Burton 600 acres in the 'parish of Dale for 36 lbs current money .. bordering on land of Caleb Ware.' The last named, as already stated, lived near the highway between Manakin Town and Pocoshock Run."⁴
- 16 Oct 1738 Henrico Co., VA. "Isaiah Burton, James Burton .. with their tithables do assist Thomas Burton with his tithables to clear and keep that road in repair of which the said Thomas Burton was appointed surveyor at January court .. 1737.'" Henrico order book, p. 64.⁵
- Feb 1745 Henrico Co., VA. "The second Order ... contains the following item: 'John Branch appointed surveyor of the road from Mannakin Town to Pocoshock Run and all male tithables of ... Isaiah Burton, Isaiah Burton, Jr., Caleb Ware, (etc.) ... to assist him."⁶
- Oct 1751 Chesterfield Co., VA. "a deed & mem endorsed from Isaiah Burton to John fowler was acknowledged by the said Isaiah, and his wife being privately examined and Relinquishing her Right of Dower in the lands thereby conveyed etc.' The deed referred to is in Chesterfield Deed Book 1, at page 282, and is dated April 3, 1751, conveying 600 acres in the county of Chesterfield to John Fowler of Henrico; mention is made of Caleb Ware's line. Signed Isaiah (X) Burton. Witnesses: John White, Mathew (X) Hobson and Nathaniel (X) Burton. This John Fowler was no doubt a cousin of Isaiah's; the Nathaniel Burton who witnessed the deed may have been a son of the grantor."⁷
- Bef 1757 Albemarle Co., VA. "Three deeds of which abstracts now follow, show that Isaiah Burton, Senior, moved to Albemarle county some time before 1757, and probably after 1753, in which year his wife Obedience brought suit against Charles Burton in Chesterfield county. Chesterfield Deeds III, page 120: 'Indenture .. March 4, 1757 between Ware Rockett of the county of New Kent .. and Isair (sic) Burton of the county of Albemarle .. 30 pounds .. tract .. in the county of Chesterfield .. 200 acres .. south side of James river being part of a large tract of land containing 1500 acres belonging to Thomas Burton as by his deed it may fully appear .. white oak in the head of Rocky Run.' (No witnesses recorded.) WARE ROCKETT.⁸ "The grantor in this deed who was a cousin of Caleb Ware, the next door neighbor of Isaiah and of his brother Thomas Burton, had obtained this tract of land by conveyance from Thomas Burton in 1745. At that time "Ware Rockett, carpenter" resided in Dale parish. The balance of his 1500 acre tract was divided up by Thomas between his sons John and Thomas Burton in 1753."

04 Mar 1757 Chesterfield Co., VA. Isaiah Burton sold the 81 acre tract given him by his father John Burton in 1728. "Chesterfield Deeds III, page 129: 'Indenture .. March 4, 1757 .. Isair (sic) Burton of the county of Albemarle (sic) .. and Abraham Cowley of the county of Henrico .. 50 pounds .. parcel .. in the county of Chesterfield on the south side of Falling Creek .. 85 acres .. bounded by land of John Baker and Jacob Waddle.' ISIAIAH BURTON. (No witnesses recorded.)⁹

20 Oct 1763 Chesterfield Co., VA. "Chesterfield Deeds IV, page 456: 'Indenture .. Oct. 20, 1763, between Isaiah Burton Senior, of the county of Buckingham .. Planter .. and John Burton (son of grantor's brother Thomas) of the Parish of Dale in the county of Chesterfield .. 28 pounds .. tract in the said county of Chesterfield .. 200 acres it being at the upper end of Thomas Burton's tract.' (Sgd.) Isaiah Burton. Test. William Burton, John Worsham, John Trabue."¹⁰

"We have not pursued the Isaiah Burtons into Buckingham county; it is understood that there is no will on record there in that name. One branch of this line later moved to South Carolina and thence to Georgia, as indicated by the citation given above. Scions of this stock were still in Buckingham in 1814 as shown by another reference herein-before.

"Isaiah Jr. is the only son who may with complete certainty be ascribed to Isaiah; Nathaniel seems in all probability to have been a second son; it is possible that the William who witnessed the foregoing deed was another son."¹¹
